

career-life education 10 rubric

A

Student completed all required elements of this assignment and provided applicable extensions that were relevant to the assignment and theories. Student fully understood the concepts that were being taught and provided evidence of this in their work. Student understands the value in the assignment and will be able to apply this to their future work.

B

Student completed all required elements of this assignment and was able to expand on the requirements that were outlined. Student understood the concepts being taught in class that were applicable to the assignment. They also understood the value in completing this assignment but was not able to provide extensions.

C+

Student completed most of the required elements of this assignment and was able to elaborate on the requirements that were completed. Student understood the basic concepts and why they are important. Student is able to apply most of these concepts to future.

C

Student completed some of the required elements of this assignment but was unable to complete the assignment in its entirety. Student understood the basics of the topic however, they would have difficulties applying them to future use.

C-

Student completed very little of the required elements of this assignment. Student struggled to expand on those requirements or their own personal ideas. Student does not understand the importance of the topic and would not be able to use these concepts in the future.