

Peer Review: Video Game Feedback

(As part of the video game design process, developers often need 'testers' to try out the game and give feedback. Your job is to play someone else's game and give constructive feedback so that they can improve the game)

Reviewers Name:	Developer's Name:
Did you enjoy the game?	1   2   3   4   5
Overall Difficulty	1   2   3   4   5
Gameplay (Is the game fun to play? Is it challenging but not impossible?)
Story (Is there a 'story' narrative that frames the game? Does the gameplay element complement the story?)
Visuals (Does the design of the levels & the game, and the sprites -- -- hero and enemies -- -- fit with the game's theme?)
Overall Notes to the Developer (Provide some feedback, particularly around any revisions that the developer can make to improve their game)
